

Lacey Fuse is an artist from a small town in Wisconsin. She moved to Utah, to expand her art education at Utah Tech University. Lacey has always had a deep appreciation for the beauty of everyday life, she finds much of her creativity in the stunning landscapes. Lacey often uses earthy tones to evoke a sense of warmth and connection to nature. Her subtle impressionistic style invites viewers to see the world from a fresh perspective. Through her work, Lacey aims to highlight the hidden beauty in ordinary moments, encouraging appreciation for the beautiful scenes around us.