

Shania Santos has been obsessed with creating art for as long as she can remember. Taking inspiration from artists Vincent Van Gogh, Claude Monet, and Frans Ykens, she develops her craft to create something bold and romantic. Her love for nature and flowers has followed into her work and has been a main topic in her art created at University.